

CWSF
 COUNCIL OF WESTERN
 STATE FORESTERS

Healthy and Resilient Western and Pacific Island Forests

AN INTRODUCTION TO THE COUNCIL OF WESTERN STATE FORESTERS

WHO WE ARE

The Council of Western State Foresters (CWSF) is a nonpartisan, nonprofit membership organization comprised of:

- 17 western State Foresters
- 6 Island Foresters from U.S.-Affiliated Pacific Islands

WHAT WE DO

CWSF provides insight on the many complex, interrelated factors at play in western forestry and the programs and strategies of greatest importance to the health and sustainability of western and Pacific Island forests.

HOW WE WORK

CWSF is committed to responsible forest management that supports the natural resilience of western forests. Drawing on the expertise of members, CWSF conducts research, compiles reports, and delivers legislative comments to inform partners and policymakers about the critical issues in western forest management.

CWSF collaborates with partners across jurisdictional boundaries to promote sustainable forest management, to protect forests from threats, and to enhance forest health and economic benefits.

CWSF collaborates with partners across jurisdictional boundaries to promote sustainable forest management, to protect forests from threats, and to enhance forest health and economic benefits. In partnership, CWSF works to conserve, protect, and enhance the many resources, uses and benefits provided by western and Pacific Island forests.

ISSUE-AREA EXPERTISE INCLUDES:

FOREST HEALTH

SUSTAINABILITY

CLIMATE CHANGE

WILDLAND FIRE

WATER

CONNECT

As the leading voice on western forestry issues, CWSF provides information, analysis and access to forestry experts in order to inform policy decisions on forest management issues.

Contact CWSF for access to the latest science-based, nonpartisan information about the sustainable management of western forests.

WesternForesters.org

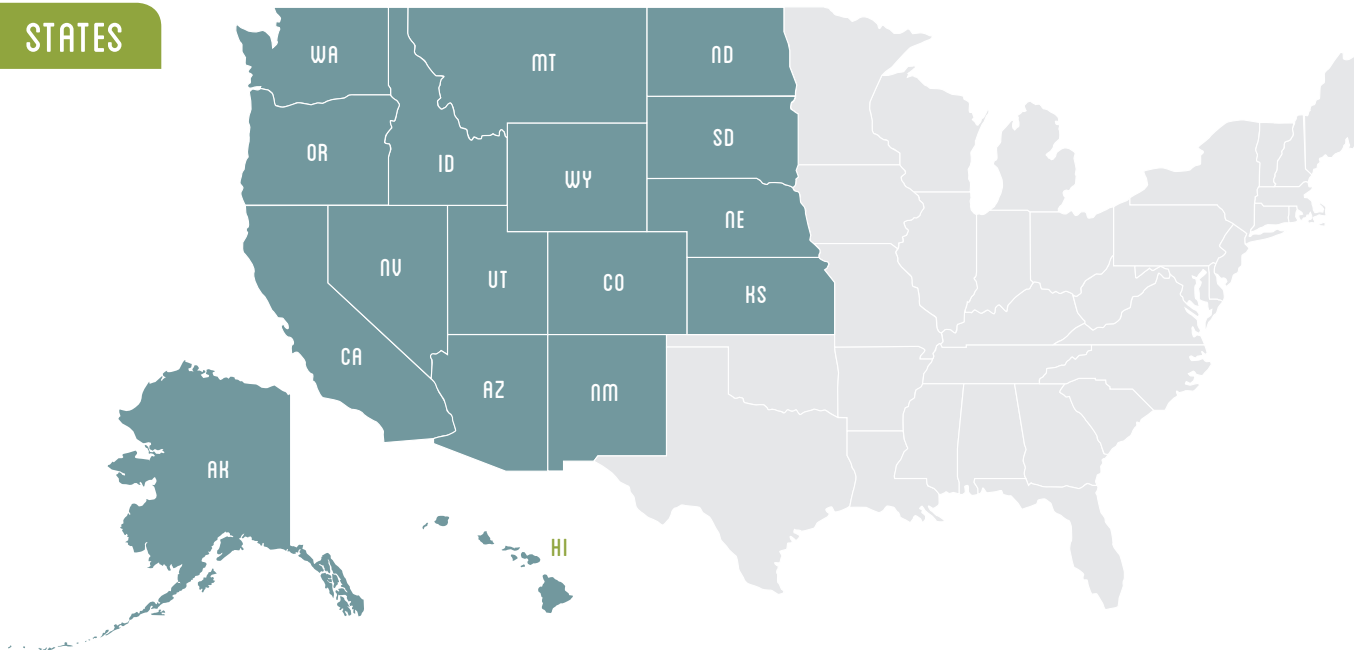

info@westernforesters.org

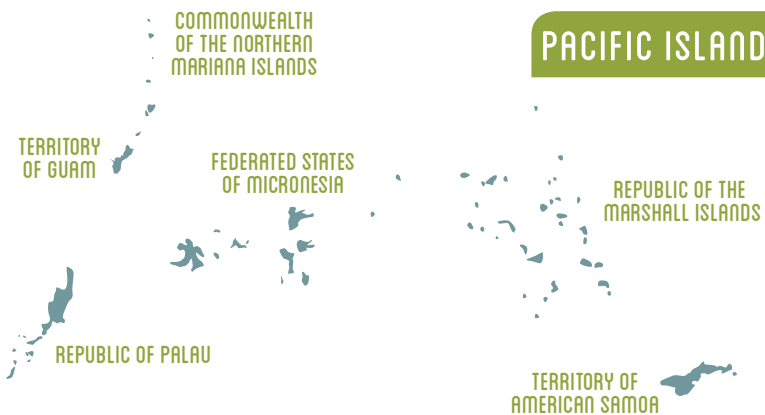

twitter.com/WesternForester

STATES

PACIFIC ISLANDS

This publication was made possible through a grant from the USDA Forest Service. This institution is an equal opportunity provider.